

Global Citizenship Rubric

BACKGROUND: At the end of each term, you will receive a Citizenship grade that will count for up to 20% of your term grade.

Honors		Just Begins	Approaches	Meets	Exceeds
C1 & CP	Just begins	Approaches	Meets	Exceeds
How you behave	Sometimes needs to be reminded to get materials ready Mostly takes notes in class	Usually has materials out and ready at start of class Usually takes notes in class When given the option, always works with the same few people	Always has materials out and ready at start of class Always takes notes in class At times, works with a variety of people to work with during class	Always has materials out and ready at start of class Actively takes notes in class—these notes include both what is on the board and what the teacher says Actively seeks out a variety of people to work with during class	Always has materials out and ready at start of class Actively takes notes in class—these notes include what is on the board & what teacher & peers say Actively seeks out a variety of people to work with during class
How you listen	Sometimes not listening	Usually listens to teacher; may not always listen to peers	Regularly listens to peers and teacher	Always listens to peers and teachers	Not only listens, but exhibits “active listening” that encourages discussion
How you speak	Sporadic participation at best	Participates somewhat regularly but rarely in ways that further discussion. (May repeat answers already given, or pull discussion back to an earlier point.)	Participates regularly and takes some risks May or may not incorporate/ address peers	Participation is regular and advances discussion by asking real questions, breaking down key ideas, and/or synthesizing various perspectives	Participation consistently advances discussion by asking real questions, breaking down key ideas, and/or synthesizing various perspectives
How you collaborate	Inhibits the collaboration of the group.	Collaborates in a respectful manner, participates as needed. Mostly completes tasks when assigned by group members.	Collaborates in a respectful manner, encourages others to participate and may have a sense of one’s own impact on the community. Mostly follows. Completes tasks when assigned by group members.	Collaborates consistently in a respectful manner, encourages others to participate and reflects on one’s own impact on the community. Knows when to lead and follow. Completes tasks when assigned by group members.	Collaborates consistently in a respectful manner, helps others participate by sharing knowledge expertise. Reflects on one’s own impact on the community. Knows when to lead and follow. Encourages others to complete tasks through clarification or communication